Sigma Beauty, developer and online marketer of the finest quality beauty products, seeks applicants for Web Application Developer at its headquarters in Mendota Heights, MN. Design, create and modify Sigma website to optimize user experience and facilitate ecommerce. Analyze user needs to implement website content, graphics, performance and capacity. Integrate computer applications with Sigma website. Utilize variety of software applications to convert content to compatible web formats.

Requirements: Bachelor's degree in Information Technology field, plus 1 year web development experience to include creation of web interfaces and functionality. Use of following tools/technologies required: A/B split testing, Google Analytics, integration of .NET and C++ in HTML/CSS, Java applications for iOS and Android devices, Google Traffic Estimator, Node.js, PHP Script and MySQL, LESS.js and RequireJS, WordPress. Background implementing e-commerce web technologies required. Experience gathering user requirements and developing web technology recommendations to senior management required. Experience may be part or fulltime.

Send resume and detailed cover letter addressing all above requirements to hr@sigmabeauty.com Must have current work authorization without need for employer immigration sponsorship. During normal business operation, this position is required to be in office which is located in the Greater Minneapolis/St Paul, MN area.